Back to Church

On Sunday, June 7, our church family will again join for worship at 10:30 a.m. in the Sanctuary. First Presbyterian is reopening in four phases, adhering to government guidelines, with the goal of keeping everyone safe and healthy. By now you should have received a letter from the Session outlining the four phases of our reopening. Please refer to that letter for guidance and information.

We are looking forward to seeing your faces and joining in Christian fellowship and worship. For those who do not yet feel comfortable joining us in person, we will continue to make our services available online, live on Facebook at 10:30 a.m. each Sunday morning, <https://www.facebook.com/fpcpborg/>. Or you may watch later by clicking the link on the Worship page of the church website, <https://www.fpcpborgwv.org/>. If you would like a CD recording of the service mailed to you, please contact the office at 304-422-5426, or send an e-mail to office@fpcpborgwv.org.

If you have any questions concerning the church reopening, please contact Mike Beckett at 304-588-6203. Mike and Nancy Brooks serve on the newly-formed Safety and Security Committee. If you are interested in serving on this committee, please give Mike a call.

NEWS ARTICLE DEADLINES

15TH DAY OF:

Jan - Mar - May - July - Sept - Nov

Being a male species does not make a man a father, for a dad is a special blend of hero; disciplinarian; a friend; someone to look up to; someone to model ... someone with a touch of the "mother" in him; someone who is big enough to say, "The fault was mine" ... someone who lives the kind of life that makes you want to say, "I, too, shall follow Him!"

—Dr. Alton Kaul

Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.

Proverbs 22:6
